

TIMOSHEVSKA TETYANA IHORIVNA

Associate professor of the department of road design, geodesy and land management
candidate economic sciences

Evaluation methods land resources

The scope of the discipline is 4 credits

Final control - credit

Lectures - 32 hours

Practical classes - 16 hours

Independent work - 72 hours

THE PURPOSE OF STUDYING THE EDUCATIONAL DISCIPLINE:

formation of theoretical knowledge about principles, methods and assessment tools of land resources, regulation of the market of land relations, and also acquisition of practical skills and skills in using a methodical approach in the evaluation room activity

KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS WILL HELP YOU:

- in further education:
 - ✓ ability to use information and communication technologies.
- in professional activity:
 - ✓ the ability to develop land management and land valuation documentation, cadastral documentation, fill in data from state land, urban planning and other cadastres.
- in everyday life:
 - ✓ develop and make effective decisions regarding professional activity in the field of geodesy and land management, including under conditions of uncertainty.

